

No.8777/E1/95/AM

GOVERNMENT OF KERALA

Taxes(E) Department,
Thiruvananthapuram.

Dated: 28.9.1995.
4.11.95.

From

The Secretary to Government.

To

The Inspector General of Registration, Thiruvananthapuram.

Sir,

Sub:-Registration Department -Clarification on registration of documents -regarding.

Ref:- Your D.O.letter No.RR3.19752/94 dt.5.5.1995.

With reference to the above, I am directed to report
as follows:-

An injunction Order, received by the Registering Officer from the Court passing the order, will come within the scope of Sub section (5) of Section 89 of the Registration Act and the registering officer shall file the copy in his Book No.1. Sections 58 to 63 of the Act specified the procedure on admitting to registration of a document and sections 71 to 77 specifies the reasons under which registration shall be refused and the procedure after such refusal.

The injunction Order prohibits alienation of the property by the parties to the I.A.1812/94 in O.S.732/92 and not a direction to the Registering Authority prohibiting registration. The Registering Authority can refuse registration only for the reasons specified in the Act. Hence, an injunction order produced by a party prohibiting alienation of the property will in no way affect the registration of the document.

Yours faithfully,

K.V.Radhakrishnan

Joint Secretary

For Secretary to Government.
