ORDER

        Section 8 (1) of the Indian Registration Act provides for the appointment of Officers to be called Inspectors of Registration Offices. The Inspector General of Registration has recommended the appointment of three Inspectors of Registration Offices for surprise inspection of Sub Registry Offices and for Vigilance work, so as to increase the efficiency of the administration of Sub Registry Offices and thereby ensure better convenience to the public. It is stated that the very small percentage of surprise inspection now carried out by the Inspector General of Registration is insufficient to achieve the object.

        2. Government, having considered the question in detail are pleased to sanction the creation of three posts of Inspectors of Registration Offices on Rs.400-900 in the Registration Department from the financial year 1970-71. The posts will be temporary and will continue till the end of February 1971.

        3. The following duties are delegated to the Inspectors of Registration Offices.

        i) Surprise inspection of Sub Registry Offices.
       ii) Annual inspection of the Amalgamated Sub Registry Office iii) Enquiries of Public complaints.
       iv) Disposal of audit reports of Internal Auditors.

        4. The Inspector at the Headquarters will be given the following additional powers:-

        a) Renewal of State Licence of Document Writers and As
        b) Disposal of inspection reports of Sub Registry Offices by Registrars, except waiving the recovery of deficits.

        5. The Inspector General of Registration will forward to Government immediately proposals for delegating the following powers:-

        b) All powers of the Registrar of Firms except the power to register firms.

        c) All powers of the Registrar of Non-Trading Companies Corporations except the power to register Non-Trading Corporations.

        He will also forward proposals regarding method of appointment, qualifications, etc., for the post.

                            By Order of the Governor,
                                A.K.K. Nambiar,
                            Secretary to Government.
